

"You Wonder Why I Went Away"

*You wonder why I went away
And didn't say goodbye.
I couldn't bear to tell you,
For it hurt too much to see you cry.
My ship came in with a beautiful deceit
The captain was King Jesus,
And as He soft beckoned to me
I ran across the leeway and fell
Down at his feet.
He gently took me in his army
My rest is now complete.*

Acknowledgements

*Our hearts are so full of love and gratitude to all of you.
We are most grateful to God for the gifts of friends like you, who have been so kind and thoughtful during these times of sorrow.*

Your visits, calls, prayers, words of consolation, flowers, and the many kind acts, both seen and unseen, have sustained us throughout the passing of our loved one "Gwendolyn".

May God ever bless each of you.

Thank you T. S. Warden Funeral Home for the use of your facilities.

Arrangements in Care of:

4315 N. Main Street
Jacksonville, Florida 32206
(904)765-1234
Tyrone S. Warden, FDIC
www.tswarden.com

A Celebration of Life

Sunrise
4/8/1945

Sunset
9/20/2016

Gwendolyn E. Howard-Scott

~Memorial Service~

1:00 PM, Friday, September 30, 2016

Samuel C. Rogers Jr. Memorial Chapel

4315 N. Main Street
Jacksonville, Florida 32206
Bishop E. L. Huntley | Officiating

*A Service of Remembrance & Thanksgiving
For the life
Of
Ms. Gwendolyn Elizabeth Howard-Scott*

Gwendolyn was born on April 8, 1945 in Jacksonville, Florida to William and Birdie Mae Howard. She attended the local schools of Duval County and graduated from Stanton High School.

Gwendolyn, better known as “Granny Granny” worked in the nursing field in her earlier years and later enjoyed the life of a homemaker assisting with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Gwendolyn was a phenomenal caregiver and the grandchildren thoroughly enjoyed spending time with her. She was an excellent cook and cleaned excessively. Gwendolyn was very quiet, yet well respected in her community. She was known for her friendly disposition.

On Tuesday, September 20, 2016, God called Gwendolyn home. She was preceded in death by her parents, William and Birdie Mae Howard; three brothers, William, Adrian Howard and Walter Smith; and a grandson, Tonee’ Huggins.

Gwendolyn leaves to miss her presence and treasured memories to her children, Alberta (Anthony) Huggins and Albert (Lillie) Howard; brother, Ronald (Linda) Howard; sisters, Remell Shaw, Vanessa (Alfred) Scott, and Sylvia Smith; grandchildren, Katesia (Shawn) Steward, Toneisha Huggins, Rikeya Defreeze, and Alexandria Howard; great-grandchildren, Craig Kelly Jr., Re’Shawn, and Tre’Shawn Steward; sis/cousin, Birdie Mae Jackson, and many more devoted, family members and grieving friends.

Order of Service

Bishop Jamell Sapp Sr., Presiding Official

Processional

Invocation

Scripture

Old Testament Reverend Robert Johnson
New Testament Elder Barbara Times-Randall

Ministry in Song Aarianne Israel

Words of Expression (2 Minutes Please)

As A Sister Remell Shaw
As A Son-in-law Anthony Huggins
As A Granddaughter Rickeya Defreeze

Acknowledgements Sis. Melba Wiggins

Resolutions

Ministry in Song Elder Tyrone Brown

Words of Comfort Bishop E. L. Huntley

Recessional