"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full; I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief. God wanted me now, he set me Free.

Acknowledgement

We are most grateful for the gift of friends like you who have been so kind and thoughtful during these hours of sorrow. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so very much, whatever the part. Your acts of kindness have given us the strength and inspiration for the facing of this hour.

Obituary

“The Man, The Myth and The Legend” Men wanted to be like him and women wanted to be with him.

Brandon Marcel White, affectionately known as “Lil B and Wheezy” was born in Jacksonville, Florida, on November 2, 1993 surrounded by his loving family.

Brandon was a charming young man and enjoyed life. He never met a stranger and brought smiles to every person he encountered. He had a way of making everyone feel special like they were number one.

Brandon was given the gift of life, and now has to give it back. This is hard but, Brandon was a blessed young man, who led an exhilarating existence, and for this, his family is grateful.

Brandon, in his early years, celebrated the gospel at Eagle’s View Baptist Church. He later attended Sweetwater Church of Christ with his family. Brandon’s early education started at the Potter’s House Christian Academy. He completed his schooling at Citizen’s High School in Orange Park, Florida. Brandon first employment was with the United Parcel Service; he later worked for Forward Air and in the restaurant business where he loved to cook.

Brandon treasured writing and placed in several spelling bees. He participated in multiple sports to include basketball, baseball and football. He loved music and dancing, celebrating that love everywhere he went. Most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his friends and family members.

Brandon departed this life on Friday, October 13, 2017 at the age of 23. He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Perry White, Sr., DeAngelo Heyser and John Delmar White, Sr.; grandmother, Louise Heyser and cousin, Jamie Mitchem Gibson.

Brandon leaves to mourn his loving parents: mother, Quanda D. White; father, Clifford Robinson; devoted grandparents, Tammy White and Perry White, Jr. who raised him with much love and support from his mother Quanda; brother, Perry White, III; sisters, Jordan Jackson, Aurella and Aaliyah Robinson; fiancé, Lyntorria Bush; daughter, Londyn; great-grandmothers, Shirley White and Fannie Mae Emory (Orlando); aunt, Tyra Wilkinson (Alvin); great-aunts, Yvonne Murray of Atlanta, Georgia, Chiquita Hampton (George), Lisa White Sumlar (Michael) and Wanda Barksdale (Michael) all of Jacksonville, Florida; uncles, John D. White Jr. (Melissa), Tony White (Helen) and Victor White; special family, David Kelsey, Nina Steward, Adonis Hicks, and Martha Hicks; dear friend, Nakeisha Lowry; special friends, Jaavontee Smith, Devin Mayes, Danielle Davis, Valencia Bush, Anthony Dixon and Shamela Green; and a host of sorrowing family members and friends.
