God's Garden

God looked in the garden and saw an empty space.
He looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.
He put his arm around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful for he only takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone;
For a part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
Respectfully submitted Auntie Dana Harvey-Williams

Miss Me, But Let, Me Go...

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in glommed filled rooms, Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me - little-but not too long. And not with your head bowed low; Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me-but let me go,
For this is a journey that we all must take, And each must go alone. It's all part of the Master's plan. A step on a road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, Go to the friends we know, And busy your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me --but let me go.
