

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

God saw you were getting weary. So He did what He thought was best. He came and stood beside you and whispered, "Come and Rest." You gave no one a last farewell; not even a good-bye. You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why.

God saw the road was getting rough. The hills were hard to climb. He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered, "Peace Be Thine." The weary hours, the days of pain, the sleepless nights are past. Breathe easy dear. Your soul is at rest. But with us, your spirit shall forever last.
