My Husband
 I lost my loving husband
 My partner in life
 He was one of a kind
 I was proud to be his wife
 But I have the memories
 Of times we shared together
 That will live inside my heart
 From this day and forever.
 For he was one of a kind
 A husband like no other
 He was my best friend
 My soul mate and my lover.
 Rest in peace my angel
 I just want you to know
 I miss you more each passing day
 And how much I love you so.
 And when I get to heaven
 I know what I will do
 You will be there with open arms
 And I will run to you.

Obituary

Samuel Keith Graham, Jr. was born in Starke, Florida on June 8, 1958 to Lillie Mae and Samuel Keith Graham Sr. They later moved to Jacksonville, Florida where he attended Jean Ribault Senior High School and made many friends and acquaintances. He enjoyed family and friends at various gatherings, being the life of the party, and bringing his contagious laugh and smile to everyone he encountered.

Samuel enjoyed being a father, step-father, grandfather, relative, and friend. Anyone that knew him, knows how much he enjoyed late night eating and snacking and often cooked full course meals. He later met and married Gail Graham (Sanders) in Jacksonville, Florida on February 14, 2012 at Paxon Revival Center. Though they never had children together, he took on the father role to her two children, always making them feel comfortable and loved. He united with Abundant Life and Christ Christian Fellowship under Pastor Vincent Arnold, Sr where he turned his life over to Christ.

Samuel departed this life on Monday, February 3, 2020 and was preceded in death by his father, Samuel Graham, Sr and daughter-in-law, Chantel Kirkland. He leaves to mourn his passing his wife, Gail Graham; sons, Terrance Kirkland Sr. and Tavares L. Kirkland (Dynisha); daughters, Kalena Daniels and MisKiya Donovan-Graham; step-sons Tyralle Welch and Antwane Sanders (Dominique); mother, Lillie Mae Graham; brothers, Donald Graham, Glen Graham, Curtis Graham, and Michael Graham; and only sister, Sheila Graham.
