Poem of Life

Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be, a resting place along the road to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, different paths along the way, we all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay... Our destination is a place, far greater than we know. For some the journeys quicker, for others the journey's slow. And when the journey finally ends we'll claim a great reward and find an everlasting peace together with the Lord.

Acknowledgements

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card, Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent flowers, If so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest word, As any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you so very much, whatever the part.*

Obituary

Mr. Kelvin Charles Laney was born on December 9, 1958 in Panama City, Florida to his parents, Mary Louise Laney and Landon Laney, Sr. He confessed Christ at an early age. Kelvin was raised in Jacksonville and received his formal education in the local Duval County Public Schools.

Kelvin departed this life on Sunday, February 16, 2020 and was preceded in death by his father, Landon Laney, Sr., and brother, Landon Laney, Jr.

He leaves to mourn his passing his three children, Mattie L. Laney-Ford (Gerald), Kelvin C. Laney, Jr., and Quanteria Laney; mother, Mary L. Laney; three brothers, Tommy Lee Laney, Anthony Laney, and Cedric Laney; and a host of grandchildren, other relatives, and friends.

Remember Me

*Speak of me as you have always done.
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun.
Share the happy memories we've made.
Do not let them wither or fade.
I'll be with you in the summer's sun.
And when the winter's chill has come.
I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze.
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.
I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
but memories we've shared are yours to keep.
Sometimes our final days may be a test,
but remember me when I was at my best.
Although things may not be the same,
don't be afraid to use my name.
Let your sorrow last for just a while.
Comfort each other and try to smile.
I've lived a life filled with joy and fun.
Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become.*
